

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

December 27th, 2016

Broadwell Capital Limited Board Member Mr. Nicholas Berry

GUERNSEY – Broadwell Capital Limited (“Broadwell”) today announced that it is deeply saddened at the death of Mr. Nicholas Berry on 25th December 2016, following a short illness. Mr. Berry had served on the Broadwell board since its inception.

Broadwell Chairman and founder Mr. Caspar Gilroy said, “Nicholas was an exceptional value investor and thoughtful individual and he will be sadly missed.”

About Broadwell

Broadwell is a Guernsey based private equity fund manager with US$1bn in commitments through the Broadwell Tactical Opportunities Fund (“Fund”). With a differentiated and esoteric investment strategy, the Fund is able to target highly complex ‘off the beaten path’ investment opportunities. Broadwell seeks to generate alpha for investors through a combination of rigorous pre-acquisition analysis and post-acquisition specialist intervention. Broadwell looks to unlock and add value across all industries and sectors, tackling the most multifaceted of opportunities. Broadwell’s investment strategy allows the team to pursue a diversified range of opportunities across all geographies however, the Fund will predominantly focus on Europe. Broadwell targets deals with a minimum investment size of US$100 million; however, it will also consider smaller deals should the risk/return warrant it.

In addition to Mr. Gilroy, the Broadwell board includes Dame Alison Carnwath, Chairman of Land Securities; and Julian Treger, Managing Partner of Audley Capital Advisors LLP.

Broadwell is advised in the UK by Broadwell Capital Alternative Strategies Limited.
